RE: United States v. Philip Kenner & Tommy C. Constantine
Docket Number: 13-CR-607 (JFB)

Dear Ms. Mirabile:

In furtherance of our previous telephone conversation, enclosed please find a blank 64GB jump drive for transfer of the “non-privileged” computerized files for return to my office for delivery to my client. Kindly do not encrypt or “password protect” the files.

Although I have been able to access the files contained on the jump drive on my computer using the password provided, the personnel at QPCF as well as my client have not been able to access the files on the jump drive previously provided for some unknown reason. As you will recall, the CD disks which were not encrypted or “password protected” were readily accessed by the personnel at QPCF and my client. Accordingly, I have incurred the expense to provide a blank jump drive in order to resolve this technical problem.

Your prompt attention to this request is appreciated in view of the need for my client to review these computerized files as soon as possible.

Very truly yours,

Richard D. Haley
